So who am I? the VP of International Relations for CFUW. Prior to that I was the VP of BC and President of BC Council for 4 years. Prior to that I was RD for Vancouver Island. My local club is Salt Spring Island. I am a retired secondary school teacher who taught English, Math and ESL.

I will speak about the role of the VP of International Relations and the scope of international advocacy we undertake on behalf of CFUW. I will include our application for observer status at COP, our UN SDG review and our Unite to ACT Campaign where we pledged to work on SDG - Quality Education--specifically 4.4-relevant education; our International Service Project, "She Belongs in School" in Mozambique. The later is through the charity 60 Million Girls. I will also speak about our pledge to the United Nations Human Rights on the 75th anniversary campaign where we have pledged to advocate for a "clean and healthy environment is a human right" which is one of our adopted resolutions. This campaign will be launched as of this Friday's Club Action News you can get more information from the newsletter.
